A closely contested game of base ball was played on Saturday last, in the field off Webb street, between the nine from the factory of A. H. Stevering & Co., and that of the Newhall & Hall team. The game was witnessed by several hundred people, including many ladies, and much interest was manifested in the result. The Newhall & Hall nine came off victorious by the following score:

N. & H.	5
S. & C.	1

A. H. S. & C. 2:30 2:00 2:00 1:00
I. Coridon, Empire, T. Griffin,
S. Smith.
The next game will be played tomorrow, Saturday.

Peach Crop
Mr. Joseph Sherman has kindly furnished us with a box of his delicious Early Wisconsin peaches. The first ones which we wrote the last week in July about were forwarded to Boston market Monday, some of them measuring nearly 4 inches round. Mr. Sherman has one of the finest peach orchards in the State, but the "perversity of nature," in sending an untimely frost in spring, has caused him to lose the crop. He added, "perversity of human nature" as exhibited by parties who in Sunday evening climbed over the enclosure, and shook the fruit from two trees, deprived him of another portion of the expected harvest. Some of the peaches stolen were quite large and well treated, so that the delinquents will reward for their sacrality.

Another instance of ruffianism at Weymouth occurred on Grove street last Saturday evening. Mr. Patrick Coffey was sitting in his house, with his wife and children, when suddenly three fellows, said to weigh two and three pounds each, stepped through an open door, falling at Mr. Coffey's feet. Mr. Coffey made a chase for the party who were five in number, but was unable to overcome or recognize them. The matter was reported to the police, who are doing all in their power to detect the guilty parties. The assault could have been made on account of any ill feeling, as Mr. Coffey is a native-born American citizen, and numerous citizens in general, and it is not known to have any cause.

A thirteen years old youth of this village, thinking he was able to paddle his own canoe, ran away from his home on Monday night, with $1 in his pockets, the money belonging to his parents.—Meeting a baker he bought a few cakes for his supper, after which he travelled toward Essex street. Reaching there at 7 he went to a house and asked for a night's lodging, telling a most pitiful story, and was taken in. He stayed a few days, when the lady, judging from his actions, said something was wrong, and told him that she could not keep him any longer; but before he left he stole a small bag of money. He then went toward Union avenue, staying in the fields that night, and the next forenoon went to a house where he had called the previous evening, and told the lady that her husband, who he had discovered at work in the woods, sent him for his money, so she put up the dinner in a nap, and the boy's suggestion adding some hot coffee in a bottle, and the lad proceeded to the woods to partake of a squandered meal. The man of the house, coming home for his dinner at noon, learned of the exploit, and went in search of the "reversed angel," whom he found in the woods, and took him back to the charge of cobbling the dinner, he was invited to accompany the man home for investigation, when the two walked down until they reached the railroad track, where the boy bolted, though he was afterwards caught by two men who knew him and returned to his home.—The returning influence of a whole bunch of shingles, in liberal applications to the person, would be a good remedy for such perversity.

Lawn Party.
The lawn party of the Universalist society, on the grounds of the Weston estate, on Front street, Wednesday afternoon and evening, proved a decided success, and the weather was all that could be desired, the dampness of the preceding day and night having given place to a sunnier day, with bright moonlight evening. The party in the afternoon was largely attended by the children of the Sunday school and their friends, and the young people dispersed with games, etc., at most happy manner, the committee of arrangements, after having generously provided for their entertainment with swings, croquet and other amusements. At 4-1/2 o'clock a beautiful collation was spread for the children and supper for the adults was served in a sunny day, with bright moonlight evening. After the singing of the hymns were commenced which was soon completed, the tables being heavily supplied with a fine repast. After supper Dr. H. Beck in behalf of the company and in his usual jovial way presented Mr. Orcutt with a handsome reclining chair which was purchased at Messrs. Ford & Phillips, also a smoking case. The ladies then in presenting the chair called on Mr. Orcutt's attention to the one in which he could derive while occupying it, also the esteem in which he was held by his friends. Mr. Orcutt very feelingly responded to the remarks of the doctor thanking them for the gifts and assuring them that the occasion will ever be remembered.

Sunday evening last Reform Club hall was filled to listen to the very interesting exercises by the Little ones of the Weymouth Sunday school. The program was as follows: song, Mr. Wm. Fleming; recitation by the children of the 23d Psalm and Lord's Prayer; recitations by Ella Curtis, Clara Barrett, Ella Benson, Betty Barrett, Stella Lowell, Jennie Belle Raymond, Emma Raymond, Carrie Raymond, Nellie Roberts, Nellie Hayes, Susie Kelly, Eliza Welch, Marion Hayes, and others.

After the hymns, Fannie Barrett, Eliza Dail's sister, recited the verse in which she was distinguished with very fine singing by the children, and at the close Rev. W. Vernal made some very eloquent remarks.

Parker, son of Mr. Stephen Turrell, was with what might have been a very serious accident last Friday evening, at Jackson square, just before the commencement of the band concert. His coat was knocked off, and while walking backward down the street Parker was knocked over by an approaching horse in prevailing on the horse to jump his head, falling on his head and neck, fracturing the vertebrae of the neck. He was conveyed to home where it was found that no bones were broken or injuries of a serious nature had occurred although it was a day or so before he was able to walk. The person driving the carriage was much concerned about the accident, and called at the house three times during the night to learn of the boy's condition.

A pleasant day and the prospects of a splendid time induced a very large number of the Congregational Sunday school and society to join in their annual excursion, which was made to the Downer Landing on Thursday of last week. Long before 9 o'clock, when was the hour of departure, scores of little ones were in readiness and eager to be on the way to the place of their father's pleasure. Arriving at the Landing the two hundred or more soon scattered about, seeking enjoyment and recreation in the many ways for which this resort is so well noted. About 1 o'clock the trip was made, a dozen or more remaining to see the place.

It is the universal opinion that this was the most delightful and enjoyable excursion made for a number of years.

Last Sunday afternoon, a son of Mr. Nathan Joy, of E. Weymouth, was driving through W. Hingham, when approaching the grocery store of G. H. Bersey & Co., his horse was taken with a fit. He was secured near the residence of David Cain and taken from the buggy before doing any damage. Mr. Joy included the horse in Boston the day before.

The Catholic Sunday School of this place and their friends will hold a picnic at Lovell's Grove Wednesday, August 1st.

"Good evening, Jean."

She had picked up her book again and was apparently much interested in it, for all it was wrong end up.

"Good evening, John," in a patronizing tone.

"Is Phoebe at home?"

"Indeed, she does care; but I shall not tell you anything about it," making a move as though to pass him.

"Oh, yes, Jean, please do! Where that fellow Stuart?"

"I really cannot tell you where Mr. Stuart is. It is not pleasant to be him called that fellow."

"Hang him!"

Canal 180 miles long, of which 6 miles are actual canal. The Erie canal is 350½ miles long; the Ohio canal, Cleveland to Portsmouth, 312; the Miami and Erie, Evansville to the Ohio line, 371. The Stuez Canal is 2 feet 4 inches deep, 73 feet 5 inches wide at bottom, 329 feet without water surface. Length a little short of 10 miles. The Panama Canal is to be 43 miles in length.

Sheep of good quality will, as men-producers alone, render nearly as good amount of food consumed as other stock and what wool is produced is so much more to be credited to them.
A moderate stock of sheep is always profitable, while on the other hand a overstock, to which there is always tendency when the profits are good will result sooner or later in loss.

Old linen should be carefully preserved as it is always useful in sick-nursing; afterward it can be washed and then scraped into lint.

at the ranch (as my friend was subsequently informed) at five o'clock in the morning. Taking into consideration the time lost between collection and shipment, and between receipt at the terminal point and actual delivery to consignee, the best regulated express company in the world could not have made this shipment more expeditiously. Moreover, as these runners are absolutely trustworthy—there are muriate of zinc to get inside of the ear; and that when there it must become absorbed in the contents, and render the latter extremely poisonous, since a muriate of tin was added to the muriate of zinc by the action of the acid wherever it entered the ear. Thus a powerful corrosive poison is produced, and one a quite small dose of which would be likely to prove fatal.

Centre—Salle J. Holbrook, Bates—Edgar R. Towns, Lizzie L. Whitman, Mrs. E. J. Smith.

Howe—Mrs. M. A. Morrill, Ella M. Clark, Pond—Martha E. Belcher.

Holls—Lenna H. Cook, The changes, it will be seen, are very few. World 1 remains all its teachers.

World 2 has two changes, the place of Master's Assistant in the Franklin school being supplied by Miss Mary L. Bates, of South Weymouth, transferred from an intermediate school in Franklin.

The second intermediate in the Belmont school will be taught by Miss Mary Ford, of Ward 3, taking the place of Miss M. J. Hawes, who is transferred to the Franklin primary, from which Miss Harlow goes to Middle street, to take the place of Miss Annie M. Thompson, resigned. In Ward 4 Miss Sadie J. Holbrook takes the place of Miss Alice Ford, at the Centre school, and in Ward 5 Mrs. E. J. Smith has charge of the Bates intermediate, in place of Miss Mary L. Bates.

To supply the schools with text-books for the coming year, under the new law, the committee have been obliged to purchase over $2000 worth. These have been bought at the lowest figure and, with stationery, pens, pencils, &c., will be placed in the various school buildings the close of the present school year.

Domestic.

A domestic in the family of Mr. M. Stacey recently lost her wallet containing $75.00, while passing through Broad street to the East Weymouth post office, and nothing was heard from it until a week ago, although the wallet contained a receipt for rent which would enable the finder to return it to the owner. It has been discovered that the wallet was picked up by a boy living in the neighborhood, who spent the money in Boston, and he has neglected to refund the amount by paying it back from his wages weekly until paid. The same boy, we learn, was connected with a robbery at Mrs. Welch's sometime ago, and escaped punishment by giving evidence against his companions.

Republican Caucus. At the Republican caucus held last evening in the town hall, N. D. Canterbury was chosen chairman and H. A. Thomas Sec'y. Delegates to the Conventions were nominated as follows:

State—Dr. C. C. Tower, F. A. Bicknell, N. D. Canterbury, C. W. Feeding, Edward Goodfield, W. French, A. E. Newhall, Senator—B. S. Lovell, H. A. Thomas, E. C. Porter, David Dugan, G. W. Bates, William Nash, Francis Ambler.

Congressional—Joseph Reed, J. J. Mahoney, G. S. Baker, G. L. Newton, C. A. Bates, Gordon Villa, C. S. Redmond, County—J. W. Barrett, G. W. White, M. E. Hawes, W. M. Dyer, G. F. Maynard, L. A. Cook, E. W. Hunt.

Councillor—B. F. Thomas, M. R. Greeley, Alpheus Bates, B. S. Lovell, Elbridge Nash, D. J. Pierce, F. S. Pratt.

The town committee chosen consist of F. A. Bicknell, J. W. Barrett, B. Frank Thomas, B. S. Lovell, N. D. Canterbury, P. W. French, A. E. Newhall, M. C. Nash, G. L. White, C. W. Feeding, C. E. Hawes, William Nash, H. A. Thomas, G. W. Bates, L. A. Cook.

After the caucus the Committee met and organized by the choice of Benj. S. Lovell as Chairman, and Henry A. Thomas Sec'y.

Democratic Caucus. At the caucus of the Democrats of Weymouth, held at the town hall Friday evening last, John A. Cornell was chosen as chairman, and D. M. Easton Secretary. The following gentlemen were elected delegates to the several conventions:—State, Geo. A. Chelmsford, D. M. Easton, J. L. Lincoln, Benj. F. Smith, D. M. Kidder, H. H. Loul, Alvin Raymond, Edward Nolan, at large, J. H. Orcutt, Senatorial, A. L. Spilster, Oliver Burdell, D. M. Easton, R. McIntosh, L. F. Loul, G. A. Cushing, James Moore, Bradford Chandler, Congressional, F. H. Torrey, J. A. Cornell, Z. F. A. Bicknell, L. B. Loul, Sam'l Curtis, R. F. Smith, Edward Nolan, at large, H. F. Smith, H. A. Newton, D. M. Easton, J. A. Cornell, G. A. Cushing, J. W. Hart, Albert Torrey, C. H. Loul. These delegates were chosen with the understanding that they should support Cleveland and Hendricks.

Accident. Last Monday a little girl named Moriarty was playing in company with other children, in the Western pasture, and while standing in front of a cow, feeding it with grass, she was suddenly struck by its head and one of the horns struck the girl in an eye, almost taking it out of the socket. Her brother started for home to call her parents, and while running through the street he was attacked by a dog and severely bitten. Dr. Forsyth was called to attend the girl.

South Weymouth, Aug. 25, 1884. Mr. Editor: Perhaps I am taking rather an improper subject on which to make comments; but as it has been introduced to the public in a wrong light, I beg leave to make a slight correction. A paper was passed around to defray the funeral expenses of Mr. J. L. Davis, in the shop in which I work, and they responded to it as usual, whether a member of the G. A. R. or not. Now I do not wish to have it understood that I am finding fault with the G. A. R., far from it; they are doing a noble work, and a great many boys, or perhaps, we will call them young men, have grown up since the war with just as large souls, just as loyal to their country, and just as willing to help a soldier as we members of the post, and certainly they were not to blame for not being born before. All we ask for is fair play, the same credit for doing a good deed, as though a member of the Post.

Justice to All. The September meeting of the Weymouth Historical Society will be held next Wednesday evening, at half-past seven o'clock, in the commodious rooms. As this is the first meeting after the midsummer vacation members will please bear it in mind and be prompt. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

Mr. Waldo Turner celebrated his 42d birthday on Friday last, 23d inst., by a family gathering at Aunt Nabby's grave, Hingham, and the day was spent in sailing and other sports, the merits of a huge clam chowder and other delicacies being thoroughly discussed. Mr. T. is the recipient of a beautiful copy of "Whittier's Hittaby Book," well filled with the photographs of brother, sisters, nephews, aunts and friends.

The Weymouth Ham go to Cottage City tomorrow morning, having been engaged by the committee to furnish a valuable record for the occasion, in the form of a book. It contains about 400 pages of reading matter, with blank leaves at the end of each chapter for members of the Regiment to note whatever of personal recollection the book does not mention. The price of the book is $2.00.

The California Pilgrimage. We are indebted to Sir K. Stephen Cain, of East Weymouth, for a superbly bound and elegantly printed copy of the record of the pilgrimage to California of Boston Commandery, K. T., edited by Sir Oliver Ayer, and beautifully illustrated with striking views of the illustrious scenery along the route and also the principal cities. A fine vignette of Commander John L. Stevenson is given as frontispiece. The work is an absorbing source of the pilgrimage.

Accident. Mr. John P. Lovell was injured in one of his feet last Monday, by a gang-plank of a steamer, while he was standing on the pier at Cottage City. He has arrived home on crutches, and it is hoped that no serious results will ensue.

East Weymouth.

Mr. E. Howland will move into the house vacated by Mr. E. F. Fisher. Our Surveyor is grading the yard of the Franklin school.

Most of the men who struck at Carroll's have secured work out of town.

Master Edith Merchant has gone to Gloucester, to spend his vacation.

Rev. L. W. Smith, of Boston, presided over the meeting at Zion's hill last Sunday.

And now it is North Weymouth that is ahead of us. The infection of improvement has reached the North village, as seen in the record of the formation of a village improvement society there. But in spite of a lack of organization, our central square has received an elegant ornament in the shape of a band stand, and the subscription toward the curbing of the green around the stand is being generously made up. Now is it not time that our business men and property owners unite and call a meeting to have for the betterment of our village?

This is the season of the year to organize, and let the winter spent in raising funds and laying plans for a vigorous spring campaign.

There will be another gospel temperance meeting in Jackson Square, on Sunday afternoon, at four o'clock, immediately after the closing of the services in the churches. There was quite a gathering to this meeting last Sunday, considering the late notice that was given, about a hundred people being present. The services consisted of singing, bible reading, prayer and speaking, and "Jesus only" was presented as the hope of the lost. Seats will be provided for those unable to stand up during the hour.

A special meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held next Tuesday afternoon, and all members are requested to be present, as business of importance will be discussed.

South Weymouth.

The Abington Press Band, W. B. White, director and P. H. Nash, leader, gave a concert in Columbian square last week Thursday evening, to a large and appreciative audience. The committee obtained their services at the cost of their conveyance from Abington, and through their generosity the people of South Weymouth were given a rich musical treat. The smoothness and fine tone with which the different numbers were given evoked the strongest praise on every hand, and the audience showed their appreciation by frequent applause. Although a comparatively new band it shows the result of a skillful leadership and can be pronounced a large musical organization. The concert was a pleasant surprise to everybody, musicians and others alike. The programme lasted for two hours and was as follows:—Recess March; Waltz, Sounds from the Forest; Schottische, Too Sweet to Love; Gypsy; Waltz; Polka; Broussard; African March; Helio Polka; Schottische; A Lovely Night in June; Benediction.

Usual preparations had been made in anticipation of the ice cream party to be given at the residence of Mr. Alfred T. Trelan last Friday evening for the benefit of Highland Cemetery association. The grounds had been tastefully trimmed with Japanese lanterns, and when darkness came the brilliant colored lights shone out in striking contrast to the more sombre background of the night. The guests were to be largely entertained on the lawn, and a portion of Stephen's Weymouth Band was procured to enliven the occasion with music. The first number had scarcely been finished however when the approaching tempest drove the guests and musicians to shelter of the pleasant room of the inviting residence. A considerable number of ladies and gentlemen had arrived before the rain commenced to fall, but coming at an hour when many were about starting from their homes, it affected the number of the children of North Weymouth, were comfortably lodged. Mrs. Trelan made every effort that no one should lack for pleasant enjoyment, having an efficient corps of ladies to lead their assistance. The band furnished a number of popular and pleasing selections in one of the rooms, the musicians being led by Mr. Stanford Orcutt. Ice cream and cake were served during the evening, and the time was otherwise filled in listening to the musical pleasant conversation. About thirty dollars was realized as a result of the party, the entire expense of which was borne by Mrs. Trelan. The rain interfered with the carrying out of the pleasant features of the evening and prevented many from attending, but none the less credit is due the hostess for her efforts in behalf of a worthy object, while at the same time catering to the enjoyment of the public.

Early in July Mrs. Josiah Reed issued cards at the same time with Miss Marion Watson and Miss Cynthia Reed, stating that they would be at home during the Wednesdays of July and August. Since that time the pleasant reception have been held every Wednesday afternoon and evening, at which Mrs. Reed has had the assistance of her sisters, Mrs. A. B. Duryea of Brooklyn and Mrs. Dana of Milwaukee, as well as other friends, in the entertainment of guests. A large number have availed themselves of the opportunity thus afforded and enjoyed their hospitality—always expected from the hands of the hostess. Last week over seventy called during the afternoon and evening, and this week there were some thirty. The new station to South Weymouth society was made that our own people as well as those from other parts of the town might become better acquainted with each other and they have been very successful.

About thirty of the "old maids" or more properly speaking, became young women last week that on Friday they determined to give a picnic at Great Pond, and without being under any obligations to the young bachelors, they enjoyed themselves in the seclusion of "Green Grove," with the usual rules and regulations. Since allowing only one person to speak at a time. Of course they reached home before dark and related what a splendid time they had.

Mrs. Ruggles, who has been long laboring among the children on Pond Plain in the interests of temperance, treated the children of the school to a nice picnic on the pond. Thursday, before going to the grove the children marched down as far as the depot, making a very pretty sight.

Attention is invited to Dr. E. B. Howe's dentistry advertisement in another column. Dr. Howe has been very successful at Rockland, Monday evening, being the first of a long series of lectures on the subject of Dental Hygiene. He has an office at his residence on Main street, where he can be found evenings and all day on Tuesdays of each week. May's compound vegetable anesthetic is used as a substitute for gas and ether in the extraction of teeth.

The Abington Lyceum is to have a picnic at the Agricultural grounds here tomorrow, similar in character to that recently held by the Rockland organization. A large number of guests are expected, by Dr. E. B. Howe's celebrated band of South Abington.

Louis A. Cook of Wilford Lodge L. O. O. F. has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master by the Grand Lodge, having for his jurisdiction the district comprising Spanish Lodge of Rockland and one in Randolph.

Miss Ida Rosenfeld has just returned from a three weeks visit at Camden and Mt. Desert, Me.

A large number went from here on the excursion to day head on Wednesday. It was a day for the day.

The track at Weymouth Park was never in better condition than now. Mr. J. M. Cummings, in charge of the clubhouse, came up with his four horse team and performed one of the most creditable and thorough jobs that has ever been done on the grounds. Mr. Benton at the park says there is no better track in the country, it being as smooth as a floor.

The concert which was to have been given by the Weymouth Band next Sunday evening is postponed one week as the result of the weather. It is expected, however that an evening concert will be given by some of our town band at the week.

Miss Abigail Hayes, who has many friends here, is visiting with Mrs. Alfred Trelan.

Mrs. S. S. Spear, who has been very sick for some time, is now improving. Miss Carrie Gardner, who has been acting as nurse during her sickness, has established a high reputation for her skill and practical ability, performing each duty with the thoroughness and skill of one trained by long experience.

Mr. Allen Stoddard, who is visiting here, celebrated his eightieth birthday at the residence of his grandfather, Mr. Allen Young, on Monday night on Tuesday last. A large number of young friends were invited to the party.

Mr. C. L. Stinson, leader of the band, has been playing all summer at Brand Rock with great success.

The Wednesday night club holds its first meeting of the season on next Wednesday evening and the members will be pleased to greet each other again after a two months vacation.
